

Events for non-academic staff in the College of Human Ecology

CHEER Mission Statement

College of Human Ecology
Employee Rejuvenation

CHEER exists to support the physical, social and psychological well-being of staff working in the College of Human Ecology by:

- ❖ coordinating and sponsoring events that advance our lives through education, entertainment, and social connection
- ❖ promoting and celebrating the diversity that each individual brings to the CHE community
- ❖ encouraging staff to reflect on and engage in the mission of the College
- ❖ liaise regarding work environment issues that could be improved to the benefit of all

What: Advice for Living from the Oldest (and Wisest) Americans: Insights from the Cornell Legacy Project

When: Thursday, June 6, 2013
noon-1pm

Who: Karl Pillemer
Professor & Director Cornell Institute for Translational Research on Aging

Where: Beebe Hall Conference Room

Why: Find out what older people know about life that the rest of us don't.

Karl is donating 2 copies of his book 30 Lessons for Living: Tried and True Advice from the Wisest Americans, which we will raffle off at the end of the presentation. Need to be present to win in order for the author to personalize his inscription to the winner.

Cookies will be served.

